

CURRICULUM VITAE

Timo Hellenberg

Dr. Timo Hellenberg is a Head of the EU Affairs at the Aleksanteri Institute, Finnish Centre for Russian and East European Studies at the University of Helsinki. Before joining the Institute in June 1997, Hellenberg served as a research fellow at the United Nations Department for Humanitarian Affairs (International Decade for Natural Disaster Reduction). The other assignments in this field include researcher at the University of Tampere and at the University of Helsinki.

Hellenberg has also worked as a Special Adviser (EU Affairs) to the Prime Minister of Finland (2003). He has specialized on energy politics, civil protection, European security and defence policy and intergovernmental cooperation for disaster reduction and emergency management.

- Board Member, Paasikivi Society (www.paasikivi-seura.fi)
- Expert member, Working Group on Social Sciences of the Finnish-Russian Scientific and Technical Commission
- Project Leader, European Union EUROBALTIC Civil Protection Project under the Council of the Baltic Sea States (www.eurobaltic.srv.se)
- Member of the Scientific and Operational Advisory Committee of the European Emergency Number Association (www.eena.org)
- Member of the Board, Hellenberg Corporation

Most recent publications:

- Challenging Disasters – Natural Disaster Reduction in the Context of Intergovernmental Relations, Kikimora Publications, 2002.
- Risk Assessment and Mapping – Safety Dimensions of Spatial Planning, 2005, Council of the Baltic Sea States.
- Cross-Border Risks at the Baltic Sea Region – Lessons to be learned, 2005, Council of the Baltic Sea States.
- Information Technologies and Decision Support Systems in Civil Protection, 2006, Council of the Baltic Sea States.

Further information: www.hellenberg.org