

Helsinki Collegium Lecture series

“Cities: European and Global”

M. Schalenberg/S. Dahlgren

Format:

11 presentations in English by various speakers in winter 2010
structure: lectures (ca. 45 minutes), then oral introduction to the text accompanying the presentation by 3 students each (ca. 10-15 min.s) and discussion (ca. 30 min.s) each speaker is asked to provide one text to be read in parallel to their lecture and as a basis for the final essay

-> Downloads from website <http://www.helsinki.fi/collegium/events/city.htm>

5 CTS require a (joint) presentation summarising one of the accompanying texts and a final essay (2 questions of ca. 5 pages each), to be submitted by 15th March 2010 exact topics will be announced in the course of the series

Schedule:

Name	Affiliation	Topic	date
Marc Schalenberg	HCAS	The “European City”: Ideal type and political catchword	19/1
Susanne Dahlgren	HCAS	Introduction to studies on the urban global south	21/1
Giacomo Bottà	Urban Studies	Cultural Representations of the post-industrial European City	26/1
Anja K.Nevanlinna	Art History	Writing Multidisciplinary Urban History [focus on architecture and town planning]	28/1
Annika Teppo	Urban Studies	The Sacred and the post-Apartheid City	2/2
Liisa Laakso	Development Studies	Political cities in Africa	4/2
Anna B. Pessi/ Peter Nynäs	HCAS/ Åbo Akademi	Relocating and negotiating the sacred: A case of a shopping mall chapel	9/2
Mikako Iwatake	Japanese Studies	Tokyo as a World City: Contesting and Reproducing European Modernity	11/2
Peter Clark	History Dept.	Cities in a globalising world: Problems of comparative historical analysis	16/2
Charles Husband	HCAS	Cities, Ethnic Diversity-Cohesion	18/2
Peter Ache	TKK	In search of the metropolis: A spatial planning discussion of European territorial development	23/2