Christina Research Seminar

1.12.2009, Metsätalo U40, Sali 8, 4pm. –6pm.

Michaela Schäuble, Martin-Luther University Halle-Wittenberg

“Gender as a Marker of Ethnic Difference in the Former Yugoslavia”

Michaela Schäuble is a lecturer at the Institute for Social Anthropology at Halle University (Germany). She studied social anthropology and comparative literature at Tübingen (Germany) and Yale (USA) Universities and has trained as a documentary filmmaker at the Granada Centre for Visual Anthropology (Manchester University, UK). Her recently defended PhD thesis entitled „Narrating Victimhood: Gender, Religion and the Making of Place“ is a study of gendered memories of war violence in the former Yugoslavia. Her current research focuses on Visual Anthropology, Landscape/Place, Social Memory, Postsocialism, Mediterranean and the Balkans.

In addition to her lecture Dr. Schäuble will be presenting her documentary film "Mothers / 4 Pieces" on Thursday 3.12. at Unioninkatu 38 (Topelia building) room F211 at 4pm.-6pm.
All interested are warmly welcome!

http://www.helsinki.fi/kristiina-instituutti/english/christinaseminar.htm