APPLICATION INSTRUCTION

Intercultural Encounters (25 c.u.)

English or Finnish skills are required of applicants as well as orientation towards intercultural encounters. Studies are completed during the academic year of 2008-2009. Priority is given to those with the major in Latin American Studies, Comparative Religion, Speech Communication and Social Psychology. 8 places are reserved for non-Finnish students.

Following enclosures are needed with application:

- Transcript

- Free-form application

Applicants should write a free-form letter in which they tell about themselves, their background, and career goals and explain the reasons why they want to study on Intercultural Encounters. The applicants should show that they are committed to finishing the studies within one academic year.

Application with enclosures should be submitted by 25th of April 2008, 4:00p.m.
The enclosures will not be returned.

Students will be chosen in June. Content and quality of previous studies, language skills, intercultural experience, motivation and involvement with studies on Intercultural Encounters will be considered in the decision. The list of accepted students will be placed on the board of the studies on Intercultural Encounters (Renvall-institute, Unioninkatu 38 A) in June. Accepted student will get acceptance letter by e-mail. They must confirm their place by Friday 1st of August 2008.
