

Grounds for requesting an ethical review statement

Field of research

Write the field of research in question in the following field:

Grounds for requesting a statement

Please select the appropriate box. You may select several options.

- Participation in the research deviates from the principle of informed consent..
 - The research involves intervening in the physical integrity of research participants.
 - The research focuses is on minors under the age of 15, without separate consent from a parent or carer or without informing a parent or carer in a way that would enable them to prevent the child's participation in the research.
 - The research exposes participants to exceptionally strong stimuli.
 - The research involves a risk of causing mental harm that exceeds the limits of normal daily life to the research participants or their family members or others closest to them.
 - Conducting the research could involve a threat to the safety of participants or researchers or their family members or others closest to them.
 - The funding agency or cooperation partner requires an ethical review statement.
 - The results are to be published in a scientific journal, which requires ethical review statements.
 - Other reason. Please explain:
-

Does the study involve medical research?

Excerpt from section 2 of the Medical Research Act (488/1999):

For the purposes of this Act: 1) medical research means research involving intervention in the integrity of a person, human embryo or human foetus for the purpose of increasing knowledge of health, the causes, symptoms, diagnosis, treatment and prevention of diseases or the nature of diseases in general; (794/2010).

Does the study involve medical research as defined under section 2 of the Medical Research Act (No 488/1999)?

Yes.

No.