

Conference agenda – IFPM5 (10th-12th April 2024, Helsinki)

Time	09.04.2024	10.04.2024	11.04.2024	12.04.2024
9.00-9.15		Coffee & registration	Keynote 2 & Roundtable	Parallel session 7 7.1 Intricacies of just forest-use transition: the political in social-ecological knowledge 7.2 Collective action in forest governance 7.3 Ecosystem Services and forest governance 7.4 Roundtable: “The Finnish Bioeconomy Beyond Growth” 7.5 Social milieus in forest policy research
9.15-9.30
9.30-9.45
9.45-10.00
10.00-10.15
10.15-10.30		Opening & keynote & panel discussion		Coffee break	Coffee break
10.30-10.45
10.45-11.00						Closing panel
11.00-11.15
11.15-11.30
11.30-11.45
11.45-12.00	Lunch break	Parallel session 4 4.1 What can forest policy research learn from communication science? 4.2 Informational policy instruments for management and conservation of Nordic forests 4.3 Women in forestry: a work perspective 4.4a The intersection of discourses, finance and politics driving ‘development’ in forest frontiers 4.5 Rethinking forest lands – abandoned, reallocated, and changing forest land use	Departure for Excursion 1.Forest walk, sauna and camp fire in Kuusijärvi outdoor area (tbc) 2.Urban planning and wood buildings in the region (tbc)
12.00-12.15				Pre-conference workshop: UniPID DocShop on decolonizing research practices
12.15-12.30
12.30-12.45					Lunch break

12.45-13.00
13.00-13.15		Parallel session 1 1.1 Interactive session: Drawing on the UniPID DocShop on decolonizing research practices 1.2a Forestry and forest policy in the EU, and the challenge of policy integration 1.3a Knowledge and science in a political forest 1.4 Deforestation, trade & investment, and the governance of supply chains over time 1.5 Forest land use, forest owners, and land conflicts	Parallel session 5 4.4b The intersection of discourses, finance, and politics driving 'development' in forest frontiers 5.1 Interactive session: What are risk-mitigating future avenues for policy-making in Nordic forests? 5.2 Introduction to the history of forest resources management in the Congo Basin 5.3 Epistemic patterns and concepts: Facilitating critical analysis on gender in forestry 5.4a From EU decision-making to implementation
13.15-13.30
13.30-13.45
13.45-14.00
14.00-14.15
14.15-14.30
14.30-14.45
14.45-15.00
15.00-15.15		Parallel session 2 1.2b Forestry and forest policy in the EU, and the challenge of policy integration 1.3b Knowledge and science in a political forest 2.1a Inequality and global politics influence in the Congo basin forestry sector 2.2a Forest Anthropology in Europe	Coffee break
15.15-15.30
15.30-15.45
15.45-16.00
16.00-16.15
16.15-16.30				Parallel session 6 5.4b From EU decision-making to implementation 6.1 None-state Forest owners and land use in Eastern Europe 6.2 Leakage impacts of the EU's biodiversity and climate policies 6.3 Knowledge and practices in a political forest

		2.3 Interactive session: Coffee Salon Human-Forest-Relationships (HFR) – Potentials and Challenges for Future-oriented Forest Policy and Research	6.4 Interactive session: Gender Equality, Diversity and Inclusions (GEDI) in forest-related sectors
16.30-16.45		Coffee break
16.45-17.00
17.00-17.15		Parallel session 3 2.1b Inequality and global politics influence in the Congo basin forestry sector 2.2b Forest Anthropology in Europe 3.1 Forest interactions with water, natural hazards energy and the carbon cycle in the context of climate change – assessing the potential of policy (dis)integration 3.2 Diversifying forest futures 3.3 Identifying challenges and ways forwards for the EU Deforestation Regulation	Transportation to venue
17.15-17.30
17.30-17.45
17.45-18.00
18.00-18.15
18.15-18.30			Banquet Hall, City Hall, on Thursday 11 April 2024 from 18.00 to 19.30 – followed by city walk
18.30 onwards		Reception on venue		