

Invitation to the Information Session Funding for Postdocs within the Una Europa Alliance

Session 2: France, Belgium, and The Netherlands

- Are you a postdoctoral researcher, a young faculty member, or a Ph.D. candidate in the final phase of your doctoral project?
- Are you curious to explore the available funding opportunities for early-career researchers within the Una Europa member countries?
- Do you wish to gain insight into the general conditions for early-career researchers at partner universities within Una Europa?

If so, we warmly invite you to attend the second information session, 'Funding for Postdoctoral Researchers within the Una Europa Alliance'. During this session, research managers from Leiden University, Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, and KU Leuven will provide brief introductions to their respective institutions and offer an overview of national research funding opportunities in France, Belgium, and the Netherlands.

DATE: Tuesday, 30th January 2024, 1:00-2.30 pm GMT / 2.00-3.30 pm CET / 3.00-4.30 pm EET

LOCATION: Online, per zoom. You'll receive a zoom link after registration.

AIM: The information session offers an overview of the available funding formats for early-career researchers in France, Belgium, and the Netherlands. It will cover their eligibility criteria, funding duration, conditions, and specific details. Additionally, the session will provide insights into the general standing of early-career researchers at the participating universities.

CONDITIONS: The session is open for members of Una Europa Universities and is free of charge.

REGISTRATION: Please register by Friday, 26th January 2024 via this link.
