

Workshop - IOs Engaging the World (18-19 November 2021)

18 November

Session I General Encounters

General Introduction: The Idea behind the Workshop - Jan Klabbers (Helsinki)

- Fernando Lusa Bordin (Cambridge)
International Organizations Engaging Third States: Synergies, Clashes and Ensuing Legal Questions
- Rebecca Schmidt (online, Oslo)
Public private interactions in transnational regulation - the case of cooperation between the sport-sector and the UN
- Marta Maroni (Helsinki)
The role of IOs in the development of ICANN

Session II Special Applications

- Siobhan Airey (online, Dublin)
Law(s), Legalities, and Ordering the World – Jurisdiction and the Governance Signature of the OECD
- Elisabetta Morlino (Naples)
International Organizations on the Market: The Values-Interests-Rules (V.I.R.) Triangle
- Ukri Soirila (Helsinki)
International Organisations as Market Actors

19 November

Session III More Special Applications

- Tleuzhan Zhunussova (Helsinki)
Corporate philanthropy in the UN development sector
- Sebastian Machado Ramirez (Helsinki)
The Swine Flu Pandemic of 2009: A case-study of the redistributive effects of international institutional decision-making
- Dimitri van den Meerssche (online, Edinburgh)
Public-Private Cooperation in Global Security Governance - An Infrastructural Perspective

Session IV Back to General Encounters

- Helmut Aust (online, Berlin)
Urban Encounters - Cities and International Organizations
- René Uruena (online, Bogotá)
Institutional interaction and the experience of international governance
- Eelco Szabo (Geneva)
Gavi - a platform for private sector engagement

Rounding up: Jan Klabbers

