The Helsinki Collegium for Advanced Studies is an independent institute of the University of Helsinki. The purpose of the Collegium is to promote high-quality research in the humanities and social sciences (including law, behavioural sciences and theology), to promote interaction between different academic fields, and to facilitate international research cooperation.

The Helsinki Collegium for Advanced Studies invites applications for

for fixed-term employment from 15 August 2020 to 14 August 2021.

Who can apply?

The position of the postdoctoral researcher in the arts is located at the Collegium and primarily intended for persons having a doctoral degree in the arts. However, persons engaged in artistic work who have completed a doctoral degree in a different academic field are also eligible to apply. In addition to the doctoral degree, the requirements for the position include experience of artistic work or artistic research. The call is open to practitioners of all fields of art. Successful candidates have the ability to produce high-quality artistic work and conduct research at an internationally significant level. The working language of the Collegium is English. The positions of the postdoctoral researchers in the arts are funded by the Kone Foundation.

What we offer

The HCAS provides a creative and inspiring research community, allowing the fellows to pursue their projects that explore the interface between the arts and academic research.

The salary will be based on level 5 of the job recruitment scheme for teaching and research staff in the salary system of Finnish universities. In addition, the appointees will receive a salary component based on personal work performance.

The fellows are offered an office at the Helsinki Collegium, and they are entitled to a personal allowance for conference trips and other research expenses.

The application must be written in English and submitted electronically, together with the required attachments.
