FURTHER INFORMATION

This deed defines all the terms and conditions for donations. The donation is gratuitous. There is no condition subsequent or condition that would restrict the use of the University’s other assets, including any matched funding from the Government. The University will decide on the use of the donation. The donation may be eligible for matched funding from the Government, which may be triple the funding or less. The donor understands that the donation’s eligibility for matched funding will be determined by the Government. The University will record any matched funding from the Government permanently in the University’s basic capital. The University will decide on the use of the return on basic capital.

The University’s duties are based on the Universities Act (558/2009). The University of Helsinki has a fundraising licence (POL-2014-11212).
