

S W E D I S H
COLLEGIUM
for ADVANCED STUDY

Call for applications for the academic year 2020–21:

Erik Allardt Fellowship HCAS

promoting academic and cultural exchange between Finland and Sweden for researchers in the humanities and social sciences

Helsinki Collegium for Advanced Studies offers a residential fellowship for one or two scholars having an affiliation with a university in Sweden for the academic year 2020-2021. Candidates representing any discipline in the humanities and social sciences and any career stage from post-doctoral researchers to full professors are eligible to apply. The fellowship period is either the entire academic year or one semester.

Erik Allardt Fellows at HCAS receive a monthly grant of 3 500 euros and a travel allowance of 2000 euros per semester. HCAS offers its fellows a stimulating collegial work environment in the centre of Helsinki, in the vicinity of University of Helsinki central campus facilities, libraries, and activities.

Applicants should submit a curriculum vitae (maximum 4 pages), list of publications, a research proposal (maximum 5 pages), and two articles or book chapters including a brief rationale for selecting the attached publications. The selection fellows will be made by the Director of HCAS based on the recommendation of the programme selection committee.

Applications should be sent no later than November 1, 2019, by e-mail to (collegium-office@helsinki.fi). More information on the fellowship can be found at www.helsinki.fi/collegium. In all email communication, please indicate in the subject heading "Erik Allardt Fellowship".

The Erik Allardt Fellowship programme is funded by Kone Foundation (HCAS) and Riksbankens Jubileumsfond (SCAS).

www.helsinki.fi/collegium

<http://www.swedishcollegium.se/>

KONEEN SÄÄTIÖ