

Schedule for the papers 5.8.2019
(please note, changes may occur)

Wednesday 28.8

Keynote of the day: Seeing the bigger picture: Using the 'Pictor' visual elicitation method to explore roles and relationships in palliative care

16.00 -17.30 Paper sessions

Chair: Auli Vähäkangas	Chair: Suvi-Maria Saarelainen	Chair: Marjaana Seppänen
Miia Kontro: Attitudes towards Euthanasia among Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Pastors	Emma Kirby: Non-presence, nothingness and relations of care at the end of life	Renske Visser: Creating and breaking bonds; the complexity of relationships in later life
Reino Pöyhiä: ATTITUDES OF HOSPITAL STAFF ON DYING – a prospective longitudinal study in Ilembula, Tanzania	Maude Lévesque: A structural inquiry on ageing and death in Canadian cities: The case of the homeless elderly	Henna Leino, Leila Hurmerinta, Birgitta Sandberg, Mira Menzfeld: A place to live or a new phase in life? The transformational potential of a nursing home
Laura Yvonne Bulk, Gil Kimel, Nigel King & Laura Nimmon: The intersection of temporality, relationships, and occupation: Implications for quality of life in end of life care	Hanna Ronikonmäki: Dimensions of hope in hospice care: A case example of establishing hope-based nursing practices	Els-Marie Anbäcken: A Japanese Narrative of Aging and Care 1992 - 2016.

Thursday 29.8.

Keynote of the day: Supporting decisions at the end of life: Relationality, care and choice

9.30-11.00	Paper sessions 4-6
Chair: Kati Tervo-Niemelä	Chair: Jenni Spännäri	Chair: Anna Mäki-Petäjä-Leinonen
Outi Hakola: Embodied Materiality of Dying	Milla Korkalainen: Lost sibling in the life story of the bereaved - narratives of	Henna Nikumaa: Autonomy of People with Dementia – an Experience of

in End-of-Life Documentaries	bereavement bonds within the course of life	Resources or a Legal Capacity to be Assessed?
Maija Butters: Landscape, ritual and aesthetics – Learning to die in contemporary Finland	Eric Venbrux: Living with a dead partner in old age	Esther Ramsay-Jones: Holding Time: Reflecting on Death in the Dementia Care Home
Kaarina Koski: Reasoning continuities and ruptures in bereavement narratives.	Auli Vähäkangas: Narratives of continuing spousal bond from Southern Finland	Antti Hämäläinen: Reconceptualisation of ethics of care and its significance for care relations regarding dementia

13.45-15.15	Paper sessions
Chair: Auli Vähäkangas	Chair: Reino Pöyhiä	Chair: Sanna Mustasaari
Chaïma Ahaddour & Bert Broeckeaert: “Seeking Treatment is a Religious Duty”. Views of Moroccan Muslim Women in Antwerp (Belgium) on Pain Control and Palliative Sedation	Piret Paal: EAPC White Paper: spiritual care education for all palliative care professionals	Laura Kalliomaa-Puha: Right to care and presumption of family and friends in the Finnish legislation
Marjaana Seppänen, Mia Niemi & Sofia Sarivaara: Social relations and exclusion in front of death	Juha Itkonen: Clues for identifying mourners at high-risk	Anna Mäki-Petäjä-Leinonen: Autonomy Within Caring Relations - The Older People Sharing Experiences Through Service TV
Kati Tervo-Niemelä: Fear of death, religion and meaningful relations	Anke Liefbroer: Faith (dis)concordance in spiritual care encounters: A survey among patients	Peter Kevern, Suvi-Maria Saarelainen, Hans Stifoss-Hanssen, Oddgeir Synnes: The national churches and existential loneliness in a secularising society

Poster walk & coffee 15.15-16.15 (chair: Auli Vähäkangas)

We will walk in small groups. Each poster presenter has 3-4 minutes for general presentation + time for free communication. Poster stands are available starting from Thursday morning.

16.15-17.15	Paper sessions
Chair: Renske Visser	Chair: Marjaana Seppänen	Chair: Jenni Spännäri
Suvi Holmberg: The First Thought is Death: A Qualitative Study of the Presence of Death in the Everyday Lives of People with Cancer	Paulina Wosko, Johanna Pfabigan & Sabine Pleschberger: Older people living alone and the importance of non-kin-carer	Vilhelmiina Lehto, Outi Jolanki & Maija Jylhä: Family members' experiences of supporting functioning of their older relative in long-term care
Maria Łuszczynska: Death as a social taboo – absence of consideration, discourse and experiencing of death in the society	Suvi-Maria Saarelainen: Spiritual needs of home-based palliative care patients in Finland	Kirsti Kuusterä: Self-motivated planning for a good old age

Friday 30.8.

Keynote of the day: Making meaning in old age

Chair: Suvi-Maria Saarelainen	Chair: Reino Pöyhä	Chair: Mia Niemi
Peter Kevern: The changing role of religion in meaning-making by older people	Pernilla Ågård: Is the palliative care ideal for all? Care providers talk about cross-cultural interaction in end-of-life care	Cecilia Melder: The good old days – Existential aspects of older adults Health-related Quality of Life [HRQL]
Ylva Krokfors: What are the meaningful ingredients of life for older persons living at home? - "the salt and sugar" from a scoping review of literature across social sciences	Sergei Mokhov: Dying in Siberia: palliative care in modern Russia	Mandy Lim: The "safe" space: Creating meaningful relations through art therapy (for the aging and dying)
Anja Terkamo-Moisio & Anna Liisa Aho: HOW TO SUPPORT A PERSON WHO HAS SUDDENLY LOST A LOVED ONE?	Teija Hammar & Minna-Liisa Luoma: Personnel Structure and Skills and Support Network for End-of-Life Care in Finnish Care Homes and Home Care	Jenni Spännäri: Meaningful Relations in Later Life: Belonging and Believing in Non-Religious Contexts

List of Posters

Old age

Katarzyna Jagielska: The quality of life of seniors in Poland on the example of a group of retired teachers

Birgitta Sandberg, Leila Hurmerinta, Henna Leino, Mira Menzfeld, Valtteri Arstila, Outi Kortekangas-Savolainen: Vulnerable individuals' needs, bonds, and the meaningfulness of life

Laura Perttola: Crossing the threshold: Access to care at old age in Finland

Paulina Wosko, Johanna Pfabigan, Sabine Pleschberger: "Older People Living Alone (OPLA) – Non-kin-carers' support towards the end of life – Reflections on the Study Protocol

Henna Nikumaa: Supporting later life legal planning of people with dementia

Death and Dying

Marjaana Seppänen & MeRela project: Encountering death at home

Milla Korkalainen: Contours of bereavement bonds - Narratives of loss in the children's grief group context